WHAKAPAPA DETAILS

Why is the Trust asking for your whakapapa? As you know whakapapa is important to us as it connects us with our tūpuna, whānau, whenua, iwi and marae. It's how we learn about our family history and trace our genealogy, and it's knowing who we are and where we're from.

As the core of mātauranga Māori (Māori knowledge), our whakapapa provides us with identity and history, and connects us with our tūpuna and the whenua. The details from your whakapapa helps the Trust verify the member's link to the tūpuna of the recognised marae that the member affiliates back to through their tūpuna.

The plan is to at sometime in the future, the Trust will enable a member to have access to the member's own genealogy map (family tree). This information will not be shared with anyone other than the member themselves, or in the case of a rangatahi under 18 years, then the registered parent/caregiver of the rangitahi.

Hence if you are able fill in what you know about your WHĀNAU DETAILS with as much than you can provide then that will help the creation of your family map. The above is an example of information sort around your father's and mother's whakapapa roots .

You will be emailed the above two forms for you to complete as best as you can and then email back to the Trust at contact@teatiawamauiptiki.iwi.nz. In the meantime if you could fill in the below then that will be a great start.

Kia ora
